4. Program areas

4.1 2018 GFA Retreat

- The 2018 GFA Retreat will return to the sunny Okanagan! Okanagan Gymnastics Centre will host the event from July 13 – 15, 2018.
- Workshop ideas requested. Committee suggested a session for Interclub coaches.

Action: GFA Committee members to please send Keara the following: 2 things they've liked at retreats in the past, and 2 suggestions for the upcoming event.

4.2 Recreational Parkour

- The WFPF certification is now open to our member clubs.
- The first course ran in late Sep/early Oct 2017 at Wayland Richmond with 18 participants in attendance.
- We are excited to report that Jesse Pierce assisted the first course and is on track to development as a master trainer.
- We hope that 1-2 other candidates will start their development soon, which would enable us to have master trainers spread throughout the province.
- The next course due to run is at Kelowna Gymnastix from January 5 – 7, 2018.

4.3 Gymnaestrada

- 2018 BC Gymnaestrada
 - Set for May 11 – 13, 2018 at the Port Moody Recreation Centre
 - Workplan #1 will be released by November 10, 2017.
- 2018 Canadian Gymnaestrada
 - Intent forms and deposit are due directly to GCG by November 1, 2018
 - First bulletin has been distributed; links to the GCG event page are on both the GBC and PLAY websites
- 2019 BC Gymnaestrada
 - Bids for the 2019 BC Gymnaestrada were discussed

4.4 Interclub

- Review of findings from the 2017 GFA Retreat Interclub sessions
- We have made it clear that the program itself will not change for the 2017-2018 season, although minor additions and/or clarifications may be made. For example, how to adjudicate based on individual routine quality, not comparative scoring.
- Main takeaway points from the session will be sent out to the committee in a separate document.
- Suggestion: to include an Interclub coaches training session at the 2018 GFA Retreat.
- Suggestion: Other resources:
 - A power-point presentation that can be used as adjudicator training
 - Documents on "what to expect at your first event" and "event etiquette"

Action: Keara to look into the above listed suggestions.

4.5 2017 AGM & Awards

- Event to take place at the Hilton Vancouver Metrotown on Saturday, Nov. 4 2017.
- GFA committee members encouraged to attend

4.9 Next Meeting – TBA

5.0 Adjournment– 2:02 p.m.
